FORCES . A force is any push or pull that causes an object to move, stop, or change speed or direction.; The greater the force, the greater the change in motion will be. The more massive an object, the less effect a given force will have on the object.; Unless acted on by a force, objects in motion tend to stay in motion and objects at rest remain at rest.

I use apprx. 4oz. of each thickness every month in my turning, and I use Stick-Fast CA exclusively for all my CA needs. I have yet to find any CA glue with better quality at any price. I use the thin and medium as a finish on my wooden pens and other small turnings, such as key-chains, razors, bottle-stoppers, etc., and have found it to give incredible shine and unequaled durability. I also use ...

The side of a ship on which it was laden (that is loaded) was called the ladeboard, but its opposite, starboard, influenced a change in pronunciation to larboard. Then, because larboard was likely to be confused with starboard because of their similarity of sound, it was generally replaced by port.
