The ACT ® is a three and a half hour test. This is the longest test most students have taken at this point in their life, and learning how to stay focused throughout the test is a unique challenge. Students will also need to be comfortable with the way the ACT ® asks questions. There are a lot of questions to answer in a short amount of time, and students who can quickly identify core concepts and know how to proceed accordingly will have an advantage.

Replies to: Revolution Prep Practice TESTS HARDER than SAT I. They are bunch of scumbags. My son took his 1st SAT exactly 6 months before the class. He got worse score when he took the 2nd time 3 months after the class. He said the instructor was pretty bad, but yet his prep test scores "improved" during the class. Their prep tests were part of their scam.
