As Liberty Valance begins, the period we see in the film is roughly the same time that Ford first began making Westerns, in the second decade of the 20th century. But the bulk of the story is a flashback that takes us to the 1870's, when most of the great Westerns, including Ford's, take place. The flashback is a re-telling of events leading up to the defining moment in the life of an ...
