Capcom has laid off a significant number of staff in its Vancouver office as part of a shift that saw the company cancel an unannounced project and cut scope on the next Dead Rising, according to a person familiar with the company as well as various posts on social media.

[Kotaku] Capcom Lays Off Staff, Cuts Scope On Next Dead ...

Honestly cutting scope on the next dead rising is exactly what the series needs. What made the first two games so fun was that you were in a small area that was densely packed with content. Hopefully they've learned their lesson from Dead Rising 4 and will make the next game more in-line with the first two.
