During the February Scrum Breakfast in Zurich, the question arised, "How do I explain Story Points to Management?" A good question, and in all honesty, developers can be an even more critical audience than managers. Traditional estimates attempt to answer the question, "how long will it take to develop X?"

jojobeans October 5, 2018 at 9:52 am. This a good point. I get asked this question a lot in interviews due to my career field (I spent several years in a war zone where every single aspect of your life was life-and-death stressful, and often work-related stress was extreme on top of that), but they nearly always ask how you "manage" your stress, not "relieve" your stress.
