The people that made our computers, phones and TV, they all most likely went to school. If we didn't have school then no one would know how to read or write. Honestly, the world would be a terrible place without education. I don't like school either but I know that I have to go through it if I want to become something in life.

why are there school? | Yahoo Answers

I honestly have loved my high school experience so far. I'm about to go into 12th grade, and the last three years have been great. Of course, there's always the typical high school jerks, and I've had my fair share of being bullied, but I've still liked it because I'm just not the kind of person to pay much attention to those people.

I really hate school. I have 2 friends and I like hanging around with them, but we are going back after Halloween break and I haven't seen them the whole time (not necessarily a bad thing, I don't think they meet up outside of school). I hate everything about school (Social) I wouldn't mind doing lots of hard work as long as I had friends and after this year I don't think I will have any ...
